SHOWCASE
FOUR LEADERS FORGING THE FUTURE

Building Tomorrow Today

Meet four Chicago-area technology innovators who are helping shape a bold future with their intriguing projects!

Martin O'Shield, Windy City SDR CEO, will describe how flexible, compact, and intelligent software-defined radio (SDR) is changing how industries from telecommunication to transportation use the electromagnetic spectrum.

Melvin Petties, Blockhive CEO, will tell us about Chicago Blockchain Project's upcoming Voice of Blockchain event August 24-25, 2018, a diverse group creating a better world using blockchain to reduce costs and corruption and improve security, services, and collaboration.

Michael Weiser, Strategic Planner at CommuterCars, discusses the exciting new Tango electric commuter car. Optimized for the challenges of urban driving, the aerodynamic Tango combines unprecedented safety and blistering performance (3.2 sec 0-60) with a small footprint.

Robert Stapleton, CEO of National Wireless Ventures LLC, presents the real-world technologies and myriad techniques needed to provide 4G LTE connectivity for events such as the Chicago Air & Water Show, Navy Pier, and Lollapalooza.
